Dear Mr. Dahlin:

The Federal Election Commission reviewed the allegations in your complaint received on July 18, 2019. On July 21, 2020, based upon the information provided in the complaint, and information provided by the respondents, the Commission decided to exercise its prosecutorial discretion to dismiss the allegations as to Joey Nations for Congress and Charlotte Nations, in here official capacity as treasurer, and Joey Nations, and close its file in this matter. Documents related to the case will be placed on the public record within 30 days. See Disclosure of Certain Documents in Enforcement and Other Matters, 81 Fed. Reg. 50,702 (Aug. 2, 2016).

11 C.F.R. §§ 100.3, 101.1(a), 104.5(f)

The Complaint alleges that Joey Nations failed to register as a candidate for the 2020 election, despite claiming to be a 2020 congressional candidate and soliciting donations in person and on social media since at least December 2018.¹ In addition, Complainant asserts that the Committee failed to file a FEC Form 6 within 48 hours after the Committee's receipt of a $1,000 contribution.² The Committee asserts that Joey Nations registered as a 2020 candidate on February 3, 2019,³ and that it is not required to file FEC Form 6 for contributions received at this point in the election cycle.⁴

Based on its experience and expertise, the Commission has established an Enforcement Priority System using formal, pre-determined scoring criteria to allocate agency resources and assess whether particular matters warrant further administrative enforcement proceedings. These criteria include (1) the gravity of the alleged violation, taking into account both the type of activity and the amount in violation; (2) the apparent impact the alleged violation may have had on the electoral process; (3) the complexity of the legal issues raised in the matter; and (4) recent trends in potential violations and other developments in the law. This matter is rated as low priority for Commission action after application of these pre-established criteria. Given that low rating, the February 2019 filing of a statement of candidacy under the name Joseph Nations, and the point during the election cycle in which the contribution was received, we recommend that the Commission dismiss the Complaint consistent with the Commission's prosecutorial discretion to determine the proper ordering of its priorities and use of agency resources. Heckler v. Chaney, 470 U.S. 821, 831-32 (1985). We also recommend that the Commission close the file and send the appropriate letters.
